

Human Performance Institute, formerly LGE Performance Systems, is a corporate training company that utilizes a science-based approach to fully engaging people's talent and skill under pressure to maximize performance, engagement, and productivity. We believe that managing energy, not time, is the key to sustained high performance. Our technology of managing energy is measurement-based and grounded in the sciences of performance psychology, exercise physiology and nutrition. The application of this technology has had a profound impact on performance in the high stress arenas of business, sport, medicine, and law enforcement.

For more information, please visit our website at www.energyforperformance.com. We are currently seeking a motivated individual for:

Registered Dietician for Executive Nutrition Training

Human Performance Institute is seeking a full-time registered dietician to teach the nutrition portion of our Energy for Performance Executive Course at our Orlando office. Qualified candidates should possess great energy, strong interpersonal skills, and the ability to work effectively with a broad range of executives. Credibility, an executive presence, and excellent speaking and facilitating abilities to high level executives are required. Qualified candidates should have a minimum of 5 years business experience. Experience with senior level executives, a demonstrated knowledge of the dynamics of change, and an ability to work effectively in a fast paced environment are a must. Minimal travel may be required.

If interested please send resume to Diane Nisbett at dnisbett@hpinstitute.com. You can learn more about our Executive Course on our website at www.energyforperformance.com